Worksheet A - Reading and writing

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

A3. Our classroom culture market

Last Thursday, our class organised a culture market. Each group prepared a food poster and introduced a country. Leo's group presented Italy. Noor's group described Sweden. They used English for their presentations and practised a few Swedish words too. Maya prepared a poster about ingredients in a homemade dessert. Visitors listened to the groups and asked questions. I tried a crispy appetiser, but I didn't taste the spicy dish. At the end, we thanked the visitors and cleaned the room together.

1. When was the culture market?

2. Which country did Leo's group present?

3. What was Maya's poster about?

4. What didn't the writer taste?

A4. True or false? Correct the false statements.

T / F Noor's group described Sweden.

T / F The groups only spoke Swedish.

T / F They cleaned the room afterwards.

A5. Your own message

Write a six-sentence report about an imaginary food event. Use regular past verbs, one negative sentence and one question tag. Mention a country and a food description.
