A3 A different study afternoon

Eren usually studies with one peer after school. They review words and read silently. On Wednesdays, Eren writes in his learning diary. Today his routine is different. He is working with three classmates on a research task. Ada is reading aloud. Tom is marking important words. Eren is checking their answers. They have two hundred cards, but they are only using the first fifty today. They take turns and share ideas. Their teacher visits the group twice a week.

1. Who does Eren usually study with?

2. What is Ada doing today?

3. How many cards have they got?

4. How often does the teacher visit?
