Family Chores

Hi, I'm Emma. In our family, everyone has a chore to do. We all help each other to keep our house clean. My dad Steve is responsible for vacuuming the floor. Every weekend, he takes the vacuum cleaner and cleans the carpets and floors in every room.

My mom Emily is in charge of cooking. She prepares delicious meals for us every day. She also makes sure that the kitchen is always tidy.

I have my own chores, too! I must set the table before meals and wash the dishes after dinner. I don't mind doing it because I like helping my parents. My little brother, Jake, has a simple chore—he must feed our cat, Whiskers. He gives her food and water every morning and evening.

Even my grandparents help with the housework. My grandma Suzy waters the plants in the garden, and she mops the floors, and my grandpa Bob takes out the garbage every night.

Chores are important because they teach us responsibility and teamwork. When everyone helps, our house stays clean, and we have more time to spend together as a family.

READ THE DIALOGUE AND ANSWER THE QUESTIONS.

Sarah: Hi, Tom. How are you?

Tom: Hello, Sarah. I'm not so happy because I have too many chores to do at home.

Sarah: Really? What kind of chores do you have?

Tom: I have to take out the garbage, do the laundry, and wash the dishes. My sister never helps me.

Sarah: Why don't you talk to your parents about it?

Tom: I don't like complaining, but I think everyone should be responsible for their own chores.

Sarah: You are right. Chores should be shared fairly in a family.

Tom: Yes, I hope my sister understands it one day. Anyway, let's go outside and have some fun.

Sarah: Great idea! Let's go!

1 Why is Tom unhappy?

- a) Because he has too many chores.
- b) Because he lost his book.

3 Who never helps Tom?

- a) His sister.
- b) His brother.

2 What does Tom have to do at home?

- a) Cook meals.
- b) Take out the garbage, do the laundry, and wash the dishes.

4 What does Sarah think about chores?

- a) Chores should be shared fairly.
- b) Only parents should do chores.
